Governing Board Statement re Deputy Headteacher

Dear Parents and Carers,

We are writing to inform you that, after 11 years as Deputy Headteacher at Dorin Park School and 30 years in teaching, Jane Mills will be retiring at the end of this term.

In Jane's retirement letter to Governors, she speaks of how very fortunate she has been in working with some wonderful people, some brilliant teachers and some highly talented students, none more so than here at Dorin Park School.

It has been a privilege to support Jane leading our school this term and we know she will miss working with such a great group of staff and students.

Governors have discussed the situation with the incoming Headteacher, Lucy Lee, and we are agreed that we need a period of stability as we find our way through these difficult times.

We are, therefore, delighted to inform you that Sarah Adam, currently acting as Deputy Headteacher, will continue in her temporary role for the next two terms. This will give us the time to determine what we are looking for in the new Deputy Headteacher, who we would plan to have in post by September 2021.

Meanwhile, please join with us in wishing nothing but the best to Jane Mills for her future.

Yours faithfully

Amanda Hartley
